PARTNERS FOR PEACE DOCUMENTARY FILM SCREENING

Partners for Peace is a feature-length documentary film that follows a delegation of American and Canadian women on a journey to Israel and Palestine. Their quest is to learn about the decades-long conflict and to reach out in solidarity to women activists striving amidst the turmoil. Confronted by the complex and brutal depth of the conflict, they are inspired by the commitment and sacrifices of the women they meet, and challenged to ask difficult questions of themselves—and of us all.

"Things are so much worse than I'd even imagined.

And there's so much more hope than I could have dreamed."

Jaelyn Friedman, Writer, Activist, Partners for Peace Delegate
